MA FERGUSON HAS HER TROUBLES, TOO

IMPEACHMENT IS PREDICTED MAY FOLLOW HUSBANDS FATE

Latter Was Impeached and Ousted Several Years Ago—Charged That He Has Been Running Things in the Lone Star State Since His Wife, the First Woman To Be Elected Governor, Was Inaugurated.

The administration of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, governor of Texas, and the first woman ever to be elected chief executive of a sovereign state, is under fire.

Impeachment proceedings threaten the Texas Highway commission appointed by her, and the initiation of this action may lead to more serious charges involving the state administration.

Lee Satterwhite, speaker of the Texas house of representatives said Wednesday that unless Governor Ferguson on her own initiative calls a special session of the house to investigate the acts of the commission, he as speaker will do so. He says he holds that power under the law when a petition asking him to do so is signed by 50 of the 150 members of the house.

"The Highway commission was named last February by Governor Ferguson," said Mr. Satterwhite. "One of its first acts was to award a contract for the maintenance of 1,000 miles of state highway to the American Road company, of New Jersey. That corporation has sublet all of its contracts and it has been alleged that altho it has not expended a single cent on road work, its profits have been enormous.

"The three members of the commission are close friends of the governor's husband, James E. Ferguson, and it has been charged openly in Texas that he is responsible for their acts. It is said that state money is being wasted in enormous sums.

"Under the law a special session of the house can be called by the speaker on petition of 50 members should the governor refuse to act. I feel hopeful that Governor Ferguson will realize the seriousness of these charges and call this session, but if she does not, I will do so as soon as the attorney-general, who now is investigating the charges, has had a chance to report, which will be in about three weeks."

Because he will have to act more or less as a judge in the case, Speaker Satterwhite would not comment at length on the situation. Other Texans with him, however, were not so reticent. They declared that the situation is serious, and that there is a strong probability that Mrs. Ferguson, as did her husband, eventually will find herself facing impeachment charges.

The Texans said the chief reason there has been no action taken was because Mrs. Ferguson had been elected on an antikan platform, and every time her official acts have been questioned she has insisted that it was the Klan that was criticizing her.

Moreover, they declared that the state is in a furore because of the freedom with which the governor has issued pardons. She, they say, has freed more than 1,000 convicts since she took the oath of office. While she is the governor, they say she is so only in name, and that every one of her acts is influenced by her husband, who himself was impeached and removed from office on charges of misuse of public funds.

Mr. Ferguson, according to Speaker Satterwhite, is the chief attorney for a railway system in Texas, at a purported salary of $20,000 a year, while the weekly paper he edits now is one of the most prosperous in the state. Yet these duties, he says, has not prevented the governor's husband from attending every meeting of the State Highway commission.

"It is charged, and documents have been filed to substantiate this charge," said Mr. Satterwhite, "that the contract let to the American Road company was for a much higher figure than for which reputable Texas contractors have said they would do the work.

"A similar contract was let to another concern in Harris county, within which Houston is located.

It was explained in as much as "Jim" Ferguson is a private citizen no action is possible against him.

When asked whether or not he expected that eventually impeachment proceedings would be brought against Governor Ferguson, Speaker Satterwhite said:

"That is for the future to determine. What is desired now is the investigation of the Highway commission. They may be innocent of any wrongdoing, but the ugly rumors affecting them must be set at rest one way or the other. As to Governor Ferguson—well, time will determine whether or not there is any necessity for any action being initiated affecting her."

SHOW WINDOW DISPLAYS.

The show windows of Neuding's grocery and that of Noah A. Warner on East Main street, are most artistically decorated with as fine a display of vegetables as one would wish to see. Nearly every vegetable raised in this vicinity is in the Neuding window. In the Warner window is a fine display of fruit which is most tempting. What a wonderful place this city would be in which to trade, if such displays could be made thruout the year.

ATTRACTIVE DISPLAY.

A most interesting display of Antiques can be seen in the show windows of the Anderson Monumental works on East Main street.

The articles are from the private collection of Mrs. E. F. Anderson and must be seen to be appreciated.

The front of the shop has just been redecorated, presents a very attractive appearance and makes a most beautiful setting for the articles on display.

Boston Gets a Visit From Band of Arapahoes

Bostonians have been greatly interested in the band of Arapahoe Indians from the Wind River reservation, Wyoming, that has been encamped in Fenway park. Here is a view of some of the tepees and a portrait of Chief Goes-in-the-Lodge, who is eighty-six years old.

FELIX KATHE CHILlicothe UNDER ARREST

In Columbus on Charge of Stealing Auto, Former Proprietor of Winter Garden.

Considerable mystery surrounds the arrest here Wednesday afternoon of Felix Kathe, in Chillicothe, former proprietor of the Winter Garden and Shamrock dance halls, who was turned over to Columbus police and taken back to the Ohio capital Wednesday evening in connection with a stolen automobile.

Chief of Police Fox, who held the key to the situation and who came here after Kathe, left early today for Columbus without giving out any information regarding the arrest.

However, it was learned thru talk at headquarters last night that Kathe was arrested in connection with the theft of a Franklin car from H. M. Seibolt, automobile dealer, Brunson and Broad streets in September 30. At Columbus this morning the only information given out was that Kathe was still being held in connection with the affair.

Kathe, it was alleged, gave the stolen auto to a Washington C. H. girl with whom he was friendly. The engine number had been filed from the block but the car was being operated under licenses issued to Kathe for another machine.

Kathe, it will be recalled, was proprietor of the Shamrock dance hall which burned some months ago. It was learned today that payment of insurance money was still being withheld. —Scioto Gazette.

TED LEWIS CERTIFIED.

The king of jazz music claims this city as his home. This is where he originated jazz music, according to Mayor Fitzpatrick's telegram to the New York World, which is as follows: "The Conning Tower care of the World New York City, New York. This city presents article in Your Tower by Chillicothean Bergman to the effect that Ted Lewis first gave world jazz music in Chillicothe. As mayor of Circleville, I am happy to inform you Ted Lewis originated jazz here. I can say, I was shaved to the tune of the original jazz, when barber, Cricket Smith worked on me and sang, while Ted Lewis found unheard of harmony and a strange alluring rhythm on any number of instruments."

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From the Wires by Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

Delaware.—Joseph Peters, Upper Sandusky, and Arthur Flemming, of Wilmington, New York, winners of first and second places, respectively, in the oratorical contests at Ohio Wesleyan university, will represent Wesleyan in intercollegiate contests this year.

Peters or Flemming will oppose orators from New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio colleges in the annual civic oratorical contest here in May. The other will be Wesleyan's representative in the Ohio Intercollegiate Peace Oratorical contests.

Columbus.—Roxie Stinson, who gained notoriety in the Teapot Dome senatorial inquiry, departed for New York today to appear before a federal grand jury.

Neither Miss Stinson nor deputy United States marshals who served the subpoenas, knew in what connection her testimony is desired.

Fort Hayes, Columbus. — Major General Robert L. Houze, Fifth corps commander, has not yet been officially notified of his appointment to the military court for the court-martial of Colonel William Mitchell.

General Howze and Colonel Sherman Moreland were appointed, according to Washington dispatches. Colonel Moreland will be judge-advocate of the court-martial and will conduct the prosecution for the government.

Cincinnati.—John Edwards, 21, who shot and killed Patrolman Allen J. Althof and wounded Joseph Lawler, a pedestrian, was arraigned on murder charges. Edwards pressed the revolver to the officer's side and shot two times after Althof arrested him on the complaint of Adam Janser, who accused Edwards of wearing a suit that had been stolen from him.

SHORT SESSION OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

The city council met in regular session Wednesday evening, October 21, with President Protem L. T. Shaner presiding and all members present.

Mr. Baker, chairman of the committee on department of public service, reported to council that the director of public service had placed some tile at the intersection of Washington and Ohio streets, to relieve the surface water at this place.

A resolution designating the voting places within the city of Circleville for the general election to be held on November 3, was adopted on motion of Mr. Baker.

"RALLY DAY" SERVICES

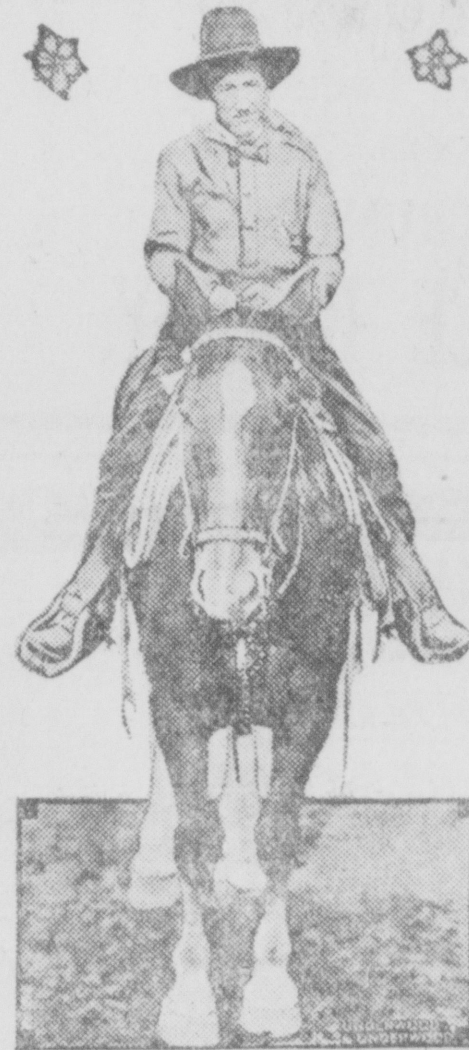

AT METHODIST CHURCH.

About 400 people attended the "Rally Day" services in the First Methodist Episcopal Sunday school last Sunday morning. The program in the various departments exemplified what an up-to-date school of religious education should be.

It might be of interest to the citizens of Circleville to know that each Sunday morning there are within the city limits from 3,500 to 4,000 people who never attend Sunday school. When we face these figures, we are made to see the necessity of schools of religious education in our city.

You will always find a cordial welcome in the abovenamed church. The program is conducted for the betterment of the community. Special mention should be made of the Self Denial offering of the Junior department on last Sunday morning, which amounted to approximately $12. Make the Sunday school the talk of the town.

WILD GEESE VISITED OUR PUMPKIN SHOW

Rain and Snow Do Not Dampen Ardor of Promoters—Everything is All Set.

Winter in the lap of autumn is what the weatherman gave us Wednesday evening. Everything was set for one of the most auspicious openings of the many successful fall festivals given by the Pumpkin Show committee when a baptism of rain came shortly after the hour set for the opening of the twenty-second annual.

The Weatherman followed the slogan, "Eventually, why not now," and the wetness came down in torrents. By eight o'clock it grew colder and snow began to fall covering the earth with a shimmering crystal blanket of the beautiful, as the poets say, but it was anything but that to the concessionaires who invested in space at two dollars per front foot, alongside the fringe of running water and slushy snow. Their frail houses of cloth stood it for about three hours and finally collapsed. The tents covering the animal show on Pinkney street, look like a miniature chain of mountains when the sun shone on the white crystals that covered the fallen canvas.

The monkeys in the animal tent shivered all night in their cages; the blue eyed chicken, the property of Lee L. Shaner lost all its feathers. Mr. Shaner explained this catastrophe by saying this is the moulting period for such animals.

The crowd on the street seemed to enjoy the vagaries of the elements and trod up and down the street in the slush and took in the sights of the beautifully decorated windows.

The pumpkin display is the largest ever and covers nearly half an acre. After leaving Court street it swings around on East Franklin street on a row of double tables.

The poultry section is full up and overflowing. The opening evening had a poultry display that was not on the program and which was unusual. Flocks of wild geese, going to Florida to rest on high priced real estate, stopped here a few hours to give us the once over. The birds were lost and were attracted here by the bright lights down along the gay white way and hovered and flew in circles over the city all thru the night. The birds could be seen easily when they came down near the lighter area. This same thing happened two years ago and hundreds of birds that tarried were killed by hunters the following morning.

All the departments are filling up and the usual big crowd will be on the streets Friday and Saturday. The sun shines always on Pickaway. We are the elect and tho we did get a little of the fleecy white on the opening night it did not dampen the ardor of the promoters of the biggest show on earth, who will carry out every portion of the published program. There will be no deviation. We had similar visitations of snow in the Centennial year celebration, 1910 and again in 1917, and both years were successful for the Pumpkin Show promoters, so don't give up the ship.

DEFACED MONUMENTS

Two Men Fined $25 and Costs For Writing Names On Gettysburg Statues.

Seranton, Pa., Oct. 20.—Judge Johnson in federal court yesterday imposed $25 fines on Fred C. Wyatt, Providence, R. I., and F. B. Ruff, Connellsville, Pa., on charges of having defaced monuments on the Gettysburg battlefield. These were the first of 29 defendants in various states who were indicted for defacement of these monuments. Judge Johnson indicated he would impose the same fines in all other cases.

Wyatt and Ruff admitted that they had written their names with pencil on a monument in the park on the battlefield.

"You men are not criminals. You merely made a mistake but people must learn not to destroy government property, especially monuments," said Judge Johnson in passing sentence.

ARMY AND NAVY OFFICERS POOR IN MONEY MATTERS?

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 20.—Representative Martin B. Madden, chairman of the house appropriations committee, declared in an address here today that the designing and construction of airplanes for use by the army and navy should be placed in the hands of a civilian group which knows better how to spend money than the regular army.

"Army and navy officials have no idea of how to spend money conservatively," he declared. "Colonel Mitchell, a good soldier and a good friend of mine, has no more idea of how to conserve money than a 4-year-old child."

SNOWSTORM DAMAGES PROPERTY AT WARREN

Warren, Oct. 20.—The heaviest snowstorm in the memory of oldest Trumbull County residents fell in the northern part of the county last night and early today, causing damage estimated at about $50,000 to farms, telephone and telegraph wires.

The snow ranged in depth from 14 inches in Bloomfield to four inches in Cortland. Trees were blown across roads and fruit still on trees was destroyed.

The last early storm that can be remembered occurred in 1873, when 11 inches fell Oct. 16.

—WE SAVE YOU MONEY—
The time is passed when the measure of the value of a memorial is quantity. I hope the time has come when that measure is quality. I care not whether the material be marble or granite, its future will be measured by the character of the design. It is quality that has preserved for us the finest examples in painting and sculpture. It is quality that will stamp our imprint upon cemeteries of the future. Simplicity, correct lines and proportions and proper ornamentation are the real fundamentals. A design that is right, material that is lasting and perfect workmanship, spells success for the future of this industry and the beautification of the cemetery. Will you let me help you select the memorial for your lot. Call at show room. NO AGENTS.

RED CROSS YEAR
A RELIEF RECORD

Huge Relief Work After Midwest Tornado the Greatest in American Annals.

DISASTERS DROP IN 1925

Ranged From Fire to Earthquake and Covered Wide Area at Home and Abroad.

Virtual completion of the largest peace-time project of post-disaster rehabilitation ever known has been accomplished by the American Red Cross in less than a year, as a part of its relief work in the more than 20 disasters in which it served in the last year.

This great program was undertaken following the tornado which struck five mid-western States last spring, killing 796 people, injuring 2,239 more,
and causing inestimable property loss.
It left a huge area of devastation in its wake, presenting a real problem.
The Red Cross, however, went to work on the heels of the storm, caring for the injured, sheltering and feeding whole communities, and helping every individual sufferer from the destruction back to normal.

The magnitude of the problem is indicated by comparison of its huge casualty list with that of the entire preceding year, whose combined losses were 735 dead and not quite 2,000 injured, as a result of the record number of 192 catastrophes.

The story of the Red Cross service in the past year, recounted by the report, ranges from fires heading the list of destructive forces with 29 disasters, to mine explosions, tornadoes, typhoons, floods and earthquakes.

The Santa Barbara earthquake was among the outstanding events recorded in the report. The Red Cross had completed its relief organization on the scene within a few hours of the disaster, and in addition had launched a program designed to permanently restore every person affected by it to his former status once more.

The Red Cross service in the period following the wreck of the Navy airship "Shenandoah" was typical of its promptness and effectiveness. Service in this instance was afforded by Red Cross chapters in the vicinity of the wreck, and by representatives of the national organization. It demonstrates graphically the value of each of the more than 3,000 chapters of the society which are at work in virtually every part of the country, in the facility they afford the national organization in emergencies.

There were 61 domestic disaster operations reported in which the Red Cross rendered service either through chapter or national staff personnel during the year. In 34 of these the national organization appropriated a total of $3,047,256.49, the greater portion of which was received as direct contributions for the relief of specified disasters. The relief operations following the northern Ohio tornado of June, 1924, were brought to a close in May, 1925, after an arrangement had been made with the Lorain chapter to provide expert services to the families of any tornado sufferers who required such assistance in the next two years. In this single disaster the relief work, as finally accounted, reached a total of $1,019,751.23.

The mid-western tornado of this year, covering a strip of territory 400 miles long involved an expenditure up to June 30 of $774,000, while the total amount turned in to the fund through the agency of the Red Cross was $2,645,000. In addition to this sum specifically collected for the purpose, the Red Cross had expended from its regular reserves $124,000.

In all these disasters, Red Cross workers have been impressed by the spirit of determination and hopefulness shown by the people. Once they recovered from their grief and bewilderment, they began at once to rebuild, materially and otherwise, and always on a better scale where possible. Another significant feature of these occurrences, as noted in the report of the Red Cross, was the promptness with which the local chapters organized emergency relief before help could be received from outside sources. A direct effect of their example has been to stimulate disaster relief preparedness among chapters all over the country.

The services of the American Red Cross are performed invariably in the name of the American people. On the effectiveness of this representation during the past year, it will launch the ninth annual roll call this year on November 11, to continue until Thanksgiving, November 26, during which support through membership will be invited for 1926.

What Becomes of Red Cross Sweaters
What becomes of the sweaters which the American Red Cross has asked for? In the first place, they are needed for the 30,000 disabled veterans still in hospitals this winter, the garments being in great demand. The surplus left from the war has been exhausted since the Armistice, hence the new call for the sweater-knitters to resume their needles, a call already being met.

The American Red Cross serves in your name; you can make it more effective by adding your name to its membership during the Roll Call Nov. 11-24.

Pocket Money

If I felt called upon to advise parents, I should enunciate solemnly this golden rule: If you wish your son to be honest, see to it that he has pocket money. The sum need not be large, but it must be his own.—Henry

Would Have More Joy
in Church Melodies

The director of a large New York theater orchestra in a Sunday address expressed the view that jazz is dying so fast that it will be defunct within a year.

All of which sounds encouraging from the standpoint of good music and restrained taste on the part of dancers.
That the prediction will be verified within the time limit fixed is open to question.

But there can be little reason to doubt the wisdom of his suggestion that the church hymns should be "pepped up" by being more or less syncopated, to maintain the tempo set by this hurrying and impatient age.

The church hymns are far from being the dirges and dyspeptic wails of the old days. They have been "pepped up" from year to year until most of them fairly reflect the cheeriness which has been injected into religion to take the place of the "fire and brimstone" wrath and despair of half a century or more ago.

Even those grand sonorous old hymns are interpreted in the spirit of cheerful modernism and they have lost none of their comforting efficacy in the transformation. They do not need "pepping up," for to do so would be to set them to tunes out of keeping with the solemnity of the great verities they commemorate.—Kansas City Journal.

WIFE WILL BE TEACHER FOR HER HUSBAND

Akron, O., Oct. 22, (UP).—Romance budded and blossomed in a rooming house where Mike Torres, a Mexican youth, met vivacious Gladys Cruz, of Spanish Seminole parentage.
In a few days they were wandering in the hall of the court house by a court attache asking for a marriage license. It was a case of love at first sight, romance tingling in the blood of old Spain and in old Mexico.
The application for the license was made, the list of questions had been answered and the time for signatures came. When Mike said he could not write his bride said, "That's all right I'll teach him."
Mike made his mark and the last chapter of the romance was written by the court clergyman.

SOME FISHERMAN
Sandusky, O. Oct. 22 (UP).—It all started when a school boy, fishing in the Huron river, brought to surface a case of Canadian beer.
After the fishermen had rushed to the scene and dragged case after case from the depths, Sheriff Harry Cole, with deputies, went to the place and began fishing with nets. Six cases of beer rewarded their efforts.
According to authorities, the beer was dumped in the river last week by a rum runner, when he was pursued by a coast guard patrol boat.

"HOT-AIR CUSTODIAN."
Cleveland, O., Oct. 22 (UP).—"Custodian of Hot Air" is the placard posted on the door of the civil service commission here.
The notice goes on to relate, in smaller letters, that the position of custodian of buildings heated by hot air is open and examinations are to be held to determine who is to obtain the position.
"Candidates for the city council will be eligible for the position," announced Ellsworth Jeffery, secretary to the commission.

FOR STATE PARK.
Green Springs, O. Oct. 22 (UP).—A plan to make Green Springs a state park has been broached by H. C. Gammeter of Cleveland, who hopes to make the wooded spot a retreat for nature lovers and students.
He suggested that a horticulture station be established there to aid Ohio State university and Wooster. Village officers are back of the move Gammeter said.

AMUSEMENTS

In the picture Richard Dix has been about everything under the sun of late but an automobile racing driver, and it is as such that we find him in the Frank Tuttle-Paramount production, "The Lucky Devil," which opened at the Metropolitan theater yesterday.
The story was written especially for Dix by Byron Morgan, who wrote all the auto pictures in which Wally Reid starred. As Randy Farman, Dix has always wanted a car of his own, and his chance to get out into the open comes when as a demonstrator of auto camping outfits in a department store, he wins a trim little speeder—and then there's no holding him.
There's a series of big laugh scenes "on the road" when he meets Doris McDee (Esther Ralston) and her mother, played by Edna May Oliver. Something turns up that brings Mrs. McDee to believe that Randy isn't just the kind of a fellow she'd care to have her daughter associate with, so off they go from camp early the following morning without as much as a word to him. Dix is after them as soon as he opens his eyes, catches up to them and, after considerable explaining, convinces them that he's not a bad sort of chap after all.
A big "punch" scene in the picture—we say "a" because there are hundreds of them—is the $10,000 automobile road race, in which Dix drives his own car. And Dix drives it! You will want to stand right up on the seat and cheer as Dix comes tearing down the home stretch in the lead—and then something happens. It's a "smash" climax with a vengeance!
Here's a picture that's so full of fast moving action that it fairly burns up the screen. It's one you'll go out of the theater talking about, and then when you see other auto picture, you will always compare them to "The Lucky Devil." It's that kind of a picture!
The cast playing in support of Paramount's new star includes such well known names as "Gunboat" Smith, Anthony Jewitt, Joe Burke, Mary Foy and Charles Sellon.

A System of Farming That Brings Health and Prosperity

Every farm, regardless of the method of farming practiced or of the crops raised, should have at least a few good milch cows to provide

- (1) Enough milk, cream and butter for home use;
- (2) Enough skim-milk to raise some calves, pigs and chickens;
- (3) Enough cream or butter to sell to pay, in part or entirely, current living expenses.

This plan has been a "life-saver" for thousands of farmers, especially during the hard times of the past two years. It insures a living, at least, and often other income besides.

Such a plan pays best with a De Laval Cream Separator. It soon pays for itself—and skims cleaner, lasts longer and is easier to operate and clean than any other.

HARTMAN THEATER.

"No, No, Nanette," happiest and most profitable of all musical comedies, will be the magnet that will attract thousands to the Hartman theater Columbus, during the week starting on Monday night, October 26.

Since this wonder show first drew the eyes of the world upon it by establishing a run of 450 consecutive performances at the Harris theater, Chicago, last season, it has simply been the sensation of the show business. Its record in Chicago still stands above all other attractions.

During the Chicago engagement another company of exceptional caliber was organized and toured for seven weeks, playing Detroit, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and other cities to record business before beginning an engagement at the Garrick theater, Philadelphia. The piece remained in Philadelphia thru seven months, smashing all kinds of records there. It is the Philadelphia company that is coming to the Hartman, headed by such actual stars as Julia Sanderson, Donald Brian, Frank Crumit and Ona Munson.

There is a third company playing "Nanette" with Taylor Holmes and Nancy Wolford as its stars, that has broken all records in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Mr. Frazee also has three other companies appearing in the musical comedy in this country.

"No, No, Nanette" was produced in London eight months ago and is the biggest success the London stage has ever known. At present it is impossible to secure seats less than three months ahead, the advance sale being above $400,000.

Australia succumbed to the charms of "Nanette" five months ago, the piece being presented at the Princess theater, Melbourne. It has been packing that theater ever since.

New York did not get a chance to acclaim "Nanette" until a month ago. It is a question which of the various companies mentioned is really the best. All have splendid casts. The one coming to the Hartman is the biggest money winner, and it is the box-office that tells the story.

Vest Pocket BatteryMay Run Car 10 Days

Leningrad.—A discovery that may have a revolutionary effect on industry is claimed by A. F. Joffe of the Academy of Science. In experimenting, Joffe says, he obtained a tremendous concentration of electrical energy in a very small object. The accumulator which he constructed and charged with energy, "sufficient to drive the most powerful motor car for ten days," is small enough to go into a waistcoat pocket, he says.

The scientist hopes it may soon be possible to apply the discovery to general industry on a large scale.

Sunday School 'Lesson'

(© 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for October 25

PAUL IN EPHEBUS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:1-41.
GOLDEN TEXT—"For the love of money is the root of all evil."—I Tim. 6:10.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Tells Idol-Makers About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul's Preaching Stirrs Up a Riot.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Diana or Christ.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Money or Christ.

Apollos, an Alexandrian Jew, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, had preceded Paul at Ephesus. He had diligently taught the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him they perceived his lack of instruction in Christian truth. Therefore, they took him and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly. Having thus come into fuller light, the brethren gave him a letter of endorsement as he passed to other fields.

I. John's Disciples Become Christians (vv. 1-7).

These 12 disciples had been taught only the baptism of repentance as a preparation for the kingdom of God. Paul taught them to believe on Christ, i. e., to receive Him as the One on the cross who had provided redemption for them. When they received Christ, Paul laid hands upon them and they received the Holy Spirit.

II. Paul Preaching in Ephesus (vv. 8-10).

1. In the Jewish Synagogue (v. 8). Though the Jews were Paul's inveterate enemies, his rule was to go to them first with the gospel. His preaching was characterized:

(1) By boldness. He realized that God sent him, and that His authority was back of him.

(2) By reason. God's message is in accord with the highest reason.

(3) By persuasion. It is not enough to come boldly with a reasonable message, it must be accompanied by persuasion.

(4) By speaking, "concerning the kingdom of God." He did not discourse on current events, literature or philosophy, but upon the message of salvation through Christ.

2. In the Schoolhouse of Tyrannus (vv. 9-10).

The Jews, being enemies of the gospel of the grace of God, were only hardened by Paul's earnest preaching. Paul separated the disciples from them and resorted to the schoolhouse of Tyrannus. This was followed with glorious results.

III. God Working Miracles by Paul (vv. 11-16).

Ephesus was noted for its wonder workers. If Paul's ministry was to be successful here, God must in an extraordinary way put His seal upon His work. So wonderfully did He manifest His power that handkerchiefs and aprons brought from Paul's body healed the sick and cast out evil spirits.

IV. A Glorious Awakening (vv. 17-41).

1. Fear Falls Upon All (v. 17). News of the casting out of these evil spirits created impressions favorable to Christianity.

2. It Brought to the Front Those Who Professed Faith in Christ, While Not Living Right Lives (v. 18). They believed but had not broken from sin.

3. Gave Up the Practice of Black Arts (v. 19).

This means forms of jugglery by use of charms and magical words. They proved the genuineness of their actions by publicly burning their books.

4. Uprou of the Silversmith at Ephesus (vv. 23-41).

(1) The Occasion (vv. 23-24). This was the power of the gospel in destroying the infamous business of Demetrius and his followers. It was clear to them that idolatry was tottering before the power of the gospel.

(2) The Method (vv. 25-29).

Demetrius, a leading business man, whose business was the stay of others of a similar nature, called a meeting and stated that much people had been turned from idolatry, and that the market for their wares was materially weakened. He appealed to his followers:

a. On the ground of business, saying: "This, our craft, is in danger of being set at naught," v. 27.

b. On the ground of religious prejudice. He said: "The temple of the great goddess Diana shall be despised" (v. 27). His speech gained him an end.

Christianity

Christianity is no mere scheme of doctrine or of ethical practice, but is instead a kind of miracle, a power out of nature and above, descending into it; a historically supernatural movement on the world, that is visibly entered into it, and organized to be an institution in the person of Jesus Christ.—Horace Bushnell.

Giving and Receiving

We live in a world of giving as well as of receiving.—American Friend.

TRIMMED!

It isn't that hat with the simple shape of common straw and the homely tape of its ribbons and bows and some velvet blue, Some tinsel and gold and a plume or two

That run the bill to a big amount—It's the trimmings that counts!

And so with man! Why it's not the dough

It costs to live that besets him so; It's jackpots and loans and the bets he's lost

The mining stock and the price it cost That sets him back such a big amount It's the "trimmings" that count! —John D. Wells.

Unit of Illumination

Candle power is the illuminating power of a lamp or flame as reckoned in terms of the light of a standard candle. The standard candle of the lighting engineer is one so made as to burn at the rate of 120 grains, or 7.8 grams, per hour. It is commonly of spermaceti. The unit of illumination is the candle meter, which is the illumination given by such a candle at a distance of one meter (39.37 inches). Great Britain does not usually employ the candle meter, but uses instead the candle foot—the standard candle's illumination at a distance of 12 inches.

Heat with Distinction

At last it is proved that a home heater can be good looking—ornamental, if you will—as well as a practical heat-producing utility.

The Mueller Furnacette marks the greatest advance in home heating equipment since the invention of the heating stove. It is the joint creation of master furniture designers and skilled heating engineers. There is distinction in every line of its well-balanced, walnut-grained, vitreous enamel cabinet.

And as for heat—never was there an above-floor heater of any kind that could compare with the Furnacette in heating efficiency! It heats the whole house by continuously re-circulating warm, moist air thru all the rooms. It provides more comfortable, more uniform heat than two or three stoves combined, yet uses no more fuel than an ordinary heating stove.

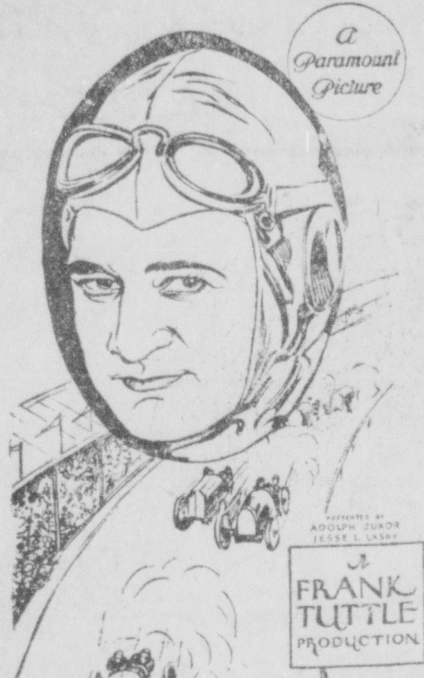

Sold on convenient monthly payments.

POLICE AND FIRE-MEN ON COMPENSATION LIST

Columbus, Oct. 21.—State industrial commission will make compensation for injuries to firemen and policemen in cities where police and firemen's pension funds provide only for the care of retired firemen or policemen and for dependents of those killed in the service.

Heretofore, the commission has disallowed all claims in instances where cities had pension funds of any kind, since the law permitted such an exemption. The new decision makes the compensation laws more widely applicable to the service for which they were intended the commission believes.

James Creedon of Columbus, a detective on the police force is in the city.

TIMBERLINE OF THE ROCKIES IS WONDER SPOT

Clem Yore, Rocky Mountain guide, tells of his experience in taking a famous banker to see the wonders of the timberline in the mountains of Colorado. The banker was first awed and then became humble.

"I'm going back to my desk with a different idea of the Universe," said the banker. "Up here, it doesn't make a bit of difference whether I borrow or lend."

"I've counted sixty species of wild flowers in a space of sixty feet square. I saw a bear eating berries. I saw eight storms in the distance, raging over a country larger than France. I saw timberline trees so twisted and bent that they made me think of old witches. I'm going down and get a horse and make my wife come up here. Since I've seen this place I'm not as tall as I was yesterday by twelve feet."

Yore, writing in the November McClure's Magazine, says the timber line is the most fascinating place in the world.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CABINET

"BACKWARD PARTY" SOON.
The Epworth League cabinet of the First Methodist Episcopal church met in regular session Tuesday night and many details of the program of the league were worked out.

The following persons were elected to fill vacancies in the cabinet: Second Vice President, Miss Hazel Palm; fourth vice president, Miss Sarah Haswell; pianist, Miss Myrtle Reid.

A social session was planned for Thursday evening, November fifth. This will be a "Backward Party." Further announcements later. The regular devotional services will be held each Sunday evening at six o'clock. Always a special program. Everyone invited.

14-Passenger Plane to Be Used in Channel Service

London.—A single 650-horse power airplane to seat 14 passengers recently completed its trials and will be used in the cross-channel service.

It has a large roomy cabin with wicker armchairs for the passengers who will have a constant supply of fresh air by means of special ventilation.

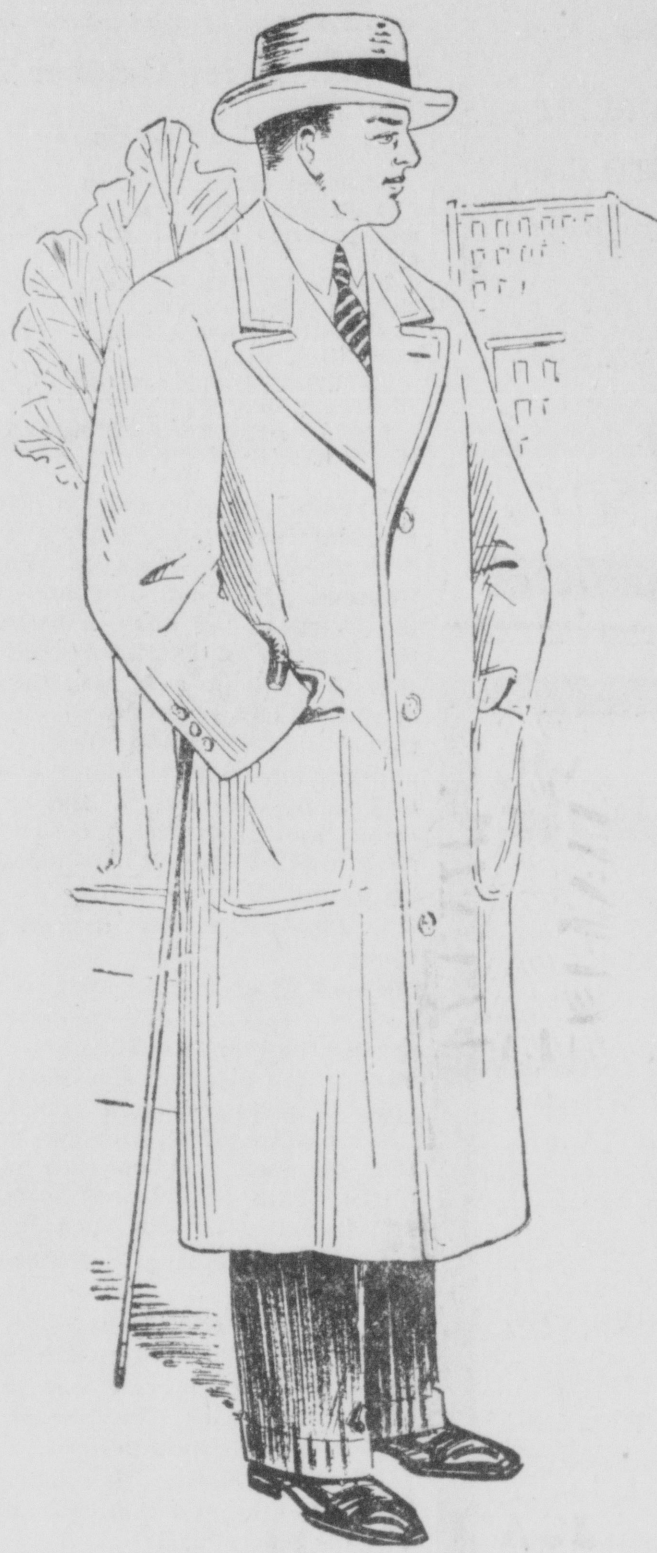

Emergency exits are provided in the room should it be necessary for passengers to emerge in case of landing on the sea, in which case the wheels, axle and undercarriage struts can be dropped by means of a lever in the pilot's cockpit.

The body of the machine is watertight and buoyant and would float for several hours.

Arizona wants 15,000 cotton pickers. Heretofore this labor has been obtained from Mexico, being returned after the harvest, but the new immigration laws prohibit this system.

"The Store That Treats You Right."

The Extravagance of Cheapness!

If one has money to waste on clothing, it may be all right to buy some of the so called "cheap" goods that are so freely advertised.

But comparatively few people can afford this form of extravagance. The man who is careful of his expenditures is not wasting money on poorly made ill-fitting clothes whose only attraction is a low first cost.

MA FERGUSON HAS HER TROUBLES, TOO

IMPEACHMENT IS PREDICTED MAY FOLLOW HUSBANDS FATE

Latter Was Impeached and Ousted Several Years Ago—Charged That He Has Been Running Things In the Lone Star State Since His Wife, the First Woman To Be Elected Governor, Was Inaugurated.

The administration of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, governor of Texas, and the first woman ever to be elected chief executive of a sovereign state, is under fire.

Impeachment proceedings threaten the Texas Highway commission appointed by her, and the initiation of this action may lead to more serious charges involving the state administration.

Lee Satterwhite, speaker of the Texas house of representatives said Wednesday that unless Governor Ferguson on her own initiative calls a special session of the house to investigate the acts of the commission, he as speaker will do so. He says he holds that power under the law when a petition asking him to do so is signed by 50 of the 150 members of the house.

"The Highway commission was named last February by Governor Ferguson," said Mr. Satterwhite. "One of its first acts was to award a contract for the maintenance of 1,000 miles of state highway to the American Road company, of New Jersey. That corporation has sublet all of its contracts and it has been alleged that altho it has not expended a single cent on road work, its profits have been enormous.

"The three members of the commission are close friends of the governor's husband, James E. Ferguson, and it has been charged openly in Texas that he is responsible for their acts. It is said that state money is being wasted in enormous sums.

"Under the law a special session of the house can be called by the speaker on petition of 50 members should the governor refuse to act. I feel hopeful that Governor Ferguson will realize the seriousness of these charges and call this session, but if she does not, I will do so as soon as the attorney-general, who now is investigating the charges, has had a chance to report, which will be in about three weeks."

Because he will have to act more or less as a judge in the case, Speaker Satterwhite would not comment at length on the situation. Other Texans with him, however, were not so reticent. They declared that the situation is serious, and that there is a strong probability that Mrs. Ferguson, as did her husband, eventually will find herself facing impeachment charges.

The Texans said the chief reason there has been no action taken was because Mrs. Ferguson had been elected on an antiklan platform, and every time her official acts have been questioned she has insisted that it was the Klan that was criticizing her.

Moreover, they declared that the state is in a furore because of the freedom with which the governor has issued pardons. She, they say, has freed more than 1,000 convicts since she took the oath of office. While she is the governor, they say she is so only in name, and that every one of her acts is influenced by her husband, who himself was impeached and removed from office on charges of misuse of public funds.

Mr. Ferguson, according to Speaker Satterwhite, is the chief attorney for a railway system in Texas, at a purported salary of $20,000 a year, while the weekly paper he edits now is one of the most prosperous in the state. Yet these duties, he says, has not prevented the governor's husband from attending every meeting of the State Highway commission.

"It is charged, and documents have been filed to substantiate this charge," said Mr. Satterwhite, "that the contract let to the American Road company was for a much higher figure than for which reputable Texas contractors have said they would do the work.

"A similar contract was let to another concern in Harris county, within which Houston is located.

It was explained in as much as "Jim" Ferguson is a private citizen no action is possible against him.

When asked whether or not he expected that eventually impeachment proceedings would be brought against Governor Ferguson, Speaker Satterwhite said:

"That is for the future to determine. What is desired now is the investigation of the Highway commission. They may be innocent of any wrongdoing, but the ugly rumors affecting them must be set at rest one way or the other. As to Governor Ferguson—well, time will determine whether or not there is any necessity for any action being initiated affecting her."

SHOW WINDOW DISPLAYS.

The show windows of Neuding's grocery and that of Noah A. Warner on East Main street, are most artistically decorated with as fine a display of vegetables as one would wish to see. Nearly every vegetable raised in this vicinity is in the Neuding window. In the Warner window is a fine display of fruit which is most tempting. What a wonderful place this city would be in which to trade, if such displays could be made thruout the year.

ATTRACTIVE DISPLAY.

A most interesting display of Antiques can be seen in the show windows of the Anderson Monumental works on East Main street.

The articles are from the private collection of Mrs. E. F. Anderson and must be seen to be appreciated.

The front of the shop has just been redecorated, presents a very attractive appearance and makes a most beautiful setting for the articles on display.

There surely will be something of a traffic problem when all of the speculators start coming back from Florida.—Indianapolis News.

Boston Gets a Visit From Band of Arapahoes

Bostonians have been greatly interested in the band of Arapahoe Indians from the Wind River reservation, Wyoming, that has been encamped in Fenway park. Here is a view of some of the tepees and a portrait of Chief Goes-in-the-Lodge, who is eighty-six years old.

FELIX KATHE CHILlicothe UNDER ARREST

In Columbus on Charge of Stealing Auto, Former Proprietor of Winter Garden.

Considerable mystery surrounds the arrest here Wednesday afternoon of Felix Kathe, in Chillicothe, former proprietor of the Winter Garden and Shamrock dance halls, who was turned over to Columbus police and taken back to the Ohio capital Wednesday evening in connection with a stolen automobile.

Chief of Police Fox, who held the key to the situation and who came here after Kathe, left early today for Columbus without giving out any information regarding the arrest.

However, it was learned thru talk at headquarters last night that Kathe was arrested in connection with the theft of a Franklin car from H. M. Seibolt, automobile dealer, Brunson and Broad streets in September 30. At Columbus this morning the only information given out was that Kathe was still being held in connection with the affair.

Kathe, it was alleged, gave the stolen auto to a Washington C. H. girl with whom he was friendly. The engine number had been filed from the block but the car was being operated under licenses issued to Kathe for another machine.

Kathe, it will be recalled, was proprietor of the Shamrock dance hall which burned some months ago. It was learned today that payment of insurance money was still being withheld.—Scioto Gazette.

TED LEWIS CERTIFIED.

The king of jazz music claims this city as his home. This is where he originated jazz music, according to Mayor Fitzpatrick's telegram to the New York World, which is as follows:

"The Conning Tower care of the World New York City, New York. This city resents article in Your Tower by Chillicothean Bergman to the effect that Ted Lewis first gave world jazz music in Chillicothe. As mayor of Circleville, I am happy to inform you Ted Lewis originated jazz here. I can say, I was shaved to the tune of the original jazz, when barber, Cricket Smith worked on me and sang, while Ted Lewis found unheard of harmony and a strange alluring rhythm on any number of instruments."

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From the Wires by Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

Delaware.—Joseph Peters, Upper Sandusky, and Arthur Flemming, of Kingston, New York, winners of first and second places, respectively, in the oratorical contests at Ohio Wesleyan university, will represent Wesleyan in intercollegiate contests this year.

Peters or Flemming will oppose orators from New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio colleges in the annual civic oratorical contest here in May. The other will be Wesleyan's representative in the Ohio Intercollegiate Peace Oratorical contests.

Columbus.—Roxie Stinson, who gained notoriety in the Teapot Dome senatorial inquiry, departed for New York today to appear before a federal grand jury.

Neither Miss Stinson nor deputy United States marshals who served the subpoenas, knew in what connection her testimony is desired.

Fort Hayes, Columbus.—Major General Robert L. Houze, Fifth corps commander, has not yet been officially notified of his appointment to the military court for the court-martial of Colonel William Mitchell.

General Howze and Colonel Sherman Moreland were appointed, according to Washington dispatches. Colonel Moreland will be judge-advocate of the court-martial and will conduct the prosecution for the government.

Cincinnati.—John Edwards, 21, who shot and killed Patrolman Allen J. Althof and wounded Joseph Lawler, a pedestrian, was arraigned on murder charges. Edwards pressed the revolver to the officer's side and shot two times after Althof arrested him on the complaint of Adam Janser, who accused Edwards of wearing a suit that had been stolen from him.

SHORT SESSION OF

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The city council met in regular session Wednesday evening, October 21, with President Proteem L. T. Shaner presiding and all members present.

Mr. Baker, chairman of the committee on department of public service, reported to council that the director of public service had placed some tile at the intersection of Washington and Ohio streets, to relieve the surface water at this place.

A resolution designating the voting places within the city of Circleville for the general election to be held on November 3, was adopted on motion of Mr. Baker.

"RALLY DAY" SERVICES

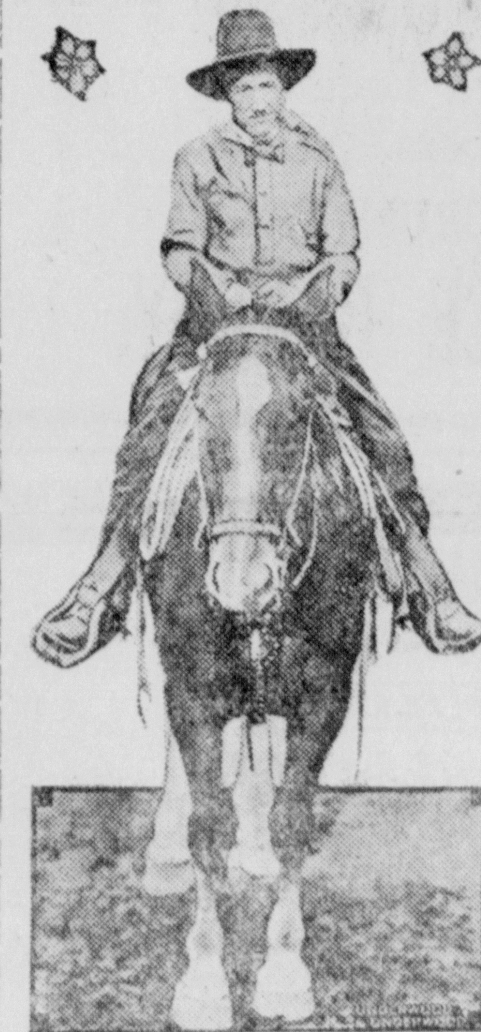

AT METHODIST CHURCH.

About 400 people attended the "Rally Day" services in the First Methodist Episcopal Sunday school last Sunday morning. The program in the various departments exemplified what an up-to-date school of religious education should be.

It might be of interest to the citizens of Circleville to know that each Sunday morning there are within the city limits from 3,500 to 4,000 people who never attend Sunday school. When we face these figures, we are made to see the necessity of schools of religious education in our city.

You will always find a cordial welcome in the abovementioned church. The program is conducted for the betterment of the community. Special mention should be made of the Self Denial offering of the Junior department on last Sunday morning, which amounted to approximately $12. Make the Sunday school the talk of the town.

VISITING PUMPKIN SHOW.

WILD GEESE VISITED OUR PUMPKIN SHOW

Rain and Snow Do Not Dampen Ardor of Promoters—Everything is All Set.

Winter in the lap of autumn is what the weatherman gave us Wednesday evening. Everything was set for one of the most auspicious openings of the many successful fall festivals given by the Pumpkin Show committee when a baptism of rain came shortly after the hour set for the opening of the twenty-second annual.

The Weatherman followed the slogan, "Eventually, why not now," and the wetness came down in torrents. By eight o'clock it grew colder and snow began to fall covering the earth with a shimmering crystal blanket of the beautiful, as the poets say, but it was anything but that to the concessionaires who invested in space at two dollars per front foot, alongside the fringe of running water and slushy snow. Their frail houses of cloth stood it for about three hours and finally collapsed. The tents covering the animal show on Pinkney street, look like a miniature chain of mountains when the sun shone on the white crystals that covered the fallen canvas.

The monkeys in the animal tent shivered all night in their cages; the blue eyed chicken, the property of Lee L. Shaner lost all its feathers. Mr. Shaner explained this catastrophe by saying this is the moulting period for such animals.

The crowd on the street seemed to enjoy the vagaries of the elements and trod up and down the street in the slush and took in the sights of the beautifully decorated windows.

The pumpkin display is the largest ever and covers nearly half an acre. After leaving Court street it swings around on East Franklin street on a row of double tables.

The poultry section is full up and overflowing. The opening evening had a poultry display that was not on the program and which was unusual. Flocks of wild geese, going to Florida to rest on high priced real estate, stopped here a few hours to give us the once over. The birds were lost and were attracted here by the bright lights down along the gay white way and hovered and flew in circles over the city all thru the night. The birds could be seen easily when they came down near the lighter area. This same thing happened two years ago and hundreds of birds that tarried were killed by hunters the following morning.

All the departments are filling up and the usual big crowd will be on the streets Friday and Saturday. The sun shines always on Pickaway. We are the elect and tho we did get a little of the fleecy white on the opening night it did not dampen the ardor of the promoters of the biggest show on earth, who will carry out every portion of the published program. There will be no deviation. We had similar visitations of snow in the Centennial year celebration, 1910 and again in 1917, and both years were successful for the Pumpkin Show promoters, so don't give up the ship.

DEFACED MONUMENTS

Two Men Fined $25 and Costs For Writing Names On Gettysburg Statues.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 20.—Judge Johnson in federal court yesterday imposed $25 fines on Fred C. Wyatt, Providence, R. I., and F. B. Ruff, Connellsville, Pa., on charges of having defaced monuments on the Gettysburg battlefield. These were the first of 29 defendants in various states who were indicted for defacement of these monuments. Judge Johnson indicated he would impose the same fines in all other cases.

Wyatt and Ruff admitted that they had written their names with pencil on a monument in the park on the battlefield.

"You men are not criminals. You merely made a mistake but people must learn not to destroy government property, especially monuments," said Judge Johnson in passing sentence.

ARMY AND NAVY OFFICERS POOR IN MONEY MATTERS?

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 20.—Representative Martin B. Madden, chairman of the house appropriations committee, declared in an address here today that the designing and construction of airplanes for use by the army and navy should be placed in the hands of a civilian group which knows better how to spend money than the regular army.

"Army and navy officials have no idea of how to spend money conservatively," he declared. "Colonel Mitchell, a good soldier and a good friend of mine, has no more idea of how to conserve money than a 4-year-old child."

SNOWSTORM DAMAGES PROPERTY AT WARREN

Warren, Oct. 20.—The heaviest snowstorm in the memory of oldest Trumbull County residents fell in the northern part of the county last night and early today, causing damage estimated at about $50,000 to farms, telephone and telegraph wires.

The snow ranged in depth from 14 inches in Bloomfield to four inches in Cortland. Trees were blown across roads and fruit still on trees was destroyed.

The last early storm that can be remembered occurred in 1873, when 11 inches fell Oct. 16.

And we hear of many mishaps,
And of autos overturned.
Some folks killed, and some are injured.
Some are maimed and others burned.
The white crosses dot our high-ways,
Each one tells of loss and pain,
And of many bright hopes blasted
And of tears that fall like rain.
If you motor through Ohio
And a white cross comes in view,
You should know that it means danger,
And the warning's meant for you.
Martha A. Goodson.

All Turk Officials Must Dress in European Style
Constantinople.—More and more the newly-born Turkish republic is abandoning old Turkish customs and substituting European methods, while the fez and turban as national headgear seem to be going into the discard. Recently the council of commissars decreed all officials must dress in European fashion and wear hats. Only priests are to be permitted to wear turbans, and they must uncover within government offices. The council also ordered the closing of all dervish convents and similar institutions and the suppression of all religious orders.

The time is passed when the measure of the value of a memorial is quantity. I hope the time has come when that measure is quality. I care not whether the material be marble or granite, its future will be measured by the character of the design. It is quality that has preserved for us the finest examples in painting and sculpture. It is quality that will stamp our imprint upon cemeteries of the future. Simplicity, correct lines and proportions and proper ornamentation are the real fundamentals. A design that is right, material that is lasting and perfect workmanship, spells success for the future of this industry and the beautification of the cemetery. Will you let me help you select the memorial for your lot. Call at show room. NO AGENTS.

RED CROSS YEAR A RELIEF RECORD

Huge Relief Work After Midwest Tornado the Greatest in American Annals.

DISASTERS DROP IN 1925

Ranged From Fire to Earthquake and Covered Wide Area at Home and Abroad.

Virtual completion of the largest peace-time project of post-disaster rehabilitation ever known has been accomplished by the American Red Cross in less than a year, as a part of its relief work in the more than 50 disasters in which it served in the last year.

This great program was undertaken following the tornado which struck five mid-western States last spring, killing 796 people, injuring 2,239 more, and causing inestimable property loss. It left a huge area of devastation in its wake, presenting a real problem. The Red Cross, however, went to work on the heels of the storm, caring for the injured, sheltering and feeding whole communities, and helping every individual sufferer from the destruction back to normal.

The magnitude of the problem is indicated by comparison of its huge casualty list with that of the entire preceding year, whose combined losses were 735 dead and not quite 2,000 injured, as a result of the record number of 192 catastrophes.

The story of the Red Cross service in the past year, recounted by the report, ranges from fires heading the list of destructive forces with 29 disasters, to mine explosions, tornadoes, typhoons, floods and earthquakes.

The Santa Barbara earthquake was among the outstanding events recorded in the report. The Red Cross had completed its relief organization on the scene within a few hours of the disaster, and in addition had launched a program designed to permanently restore every person affected by it, to his former status once more.

The Red Cross service in the period following the wreck of the Navy ship "Shenandoah" was typical of its promptness and effectiveness. Service in this instance was afforded by Red Cross chapters in the vicinity of the wreck, and by representatives of the national organization. It demonstrates graphically the value of each of the more than 3,000 chapters of the society which are at work in virtually every part of the country, in the facility they afford the national organization in emergencies.

There were 61 domestic disaster operations reported in which the Red Cross rendered service either through chapter or national staff personnel during the year. In 34 of these the national organization appropriated a total of $3,047,256.49, the greater portion of which was received as direct contributions for the relief of specified disasters. The relief operations following the northern Ohio tornado of June, 1924, were brought to a close in May, 1925, after an arrangement had been made with the Lorain chapter to provide expert services to the families of any tornado sufferers who required such assistance in the next two years. In this single disaster the relief work, as finally accounted, reached a total of $1,019,751.23.

The mid-western tornado of this year, covering a strip of territory 400 miles long involved an expenditure up to June 30 of $774,000, while the total amount turned in to the fund through the agency of the Red Cross was $2,645,000. In addition to this sum specifically collected for the purpose, the Red Cross had expended from its regular reserves $124,000.

In all these disasters, Red Cross workers have been impressed by the spirit of determination and hopefulness shown by the people. Once they recovered from their grief and bewilderment, they began at once to rebuild, materially and otherwise, and always on a better scale where possible. Another significant feature of these occurrences, as noted in the report of the Red Cross, was the promptness with which the local chapters organized emergency relief before help could be received from outside sources. A direct effect of their example has been to stimulate disaster relief preparedness among chapters all over the country.

The services of the American Red Cross are performed invariably in the name of the American people. On the effectiveness of this representation during the past year, it will launch the ninth annual roll call this year on November 11, to continue until Thanksgiving, November 26, during which support through membership will be invited for 1926.

What Becomes of Red Cross Sweaters? What becomes of the sweaters which the American Red Cross has asked for? In the first place, they are needed for the 30,000 disabled veterans still in hospitals this winter, the garments being in great demand. The surplus left from the war has been exhausted since the Armistice, hence the new call for the sweater-knitters to resume their needles, a call already being met.

The American Red Cross serves in your name; you can make it more effective by adding your name to its membership during the Roll Call Nov. 11-26.

Pocket Money

If I felt called upon to advise parents, I should enunciate solemnly this golden rule: If you wish your son to be honest, see to it that he has pocket money. The sum need not be large, but it must be his own.—Henry James Forman, in Hearst's International-Cosmopolitan.

Would Have More Joy in Church Melodies

The director of a large New York theater orchestra in a Sunday address expressed the view that jazz is dying so fast that it will be defunct within a year.

All of which sounds encouraging from the standpoint of good music and restrained taste on the part of dancers. That the prediction will be verified within the time limit fixed is open to question.

But there can be little reason to doubt the wisdom of his suggestion that the church hymns should be "pepped up" by being more or less syncretized, to maintain the tempo set by this hurrying and impatient age.

The church hymns are far from being the dirges and dyspeptic wails of the old days. They have been "pepped up" from year to year until most of them fairly reflect the cheeriness which has been injected into religion to take the place of the "fire and brimstone" wrath and despair of half a century or more ago.

Even those grand sonorous old hymns are interpreted in the spirit of cheerful modernism and they have lost none of their comforting efficacy in the transformation. They do not need "pepping up," for to do so would be to set them to tunes out of keeping with the solemnity of the great verities they commemorate.—Kansas City Journal.

A Daring Departure in 1921

.. today, the nation's standard for small home heating

"BEAUTIFUL, yes, but will it work?" Many questions, like this one, greeted the Heatrola in 1921. It was so different in appearance and operation from anything known before.

But Heatrola "worked!" From the day of the first installation, its success was assured. For Heatrola, handsome as a fine mahogany cabinet, and as easy to keep clean, does the work of a basement furnace! It keeps every room in the house, upstairs and down, cozy and snug in coldest weather. And requires no more fuel than any stove requires.

Tens of thousands of homes enjoyed Heatrola's furnace comfort last Winter—many thousands more will own Heatrolas before snow flies. Right here in this community, the homes of many of your neighbors are kept warm by this modern heating method. Let us show you these Heatrolas, and tell you how easily you can own one, too. WIFE WILL BE TEACHER FOR HER HUSBAND

Akron, O., Oct. 22, (UP).—Romance budded and blossomed in a rooming house where Mike Torres, a Mexican youth, met vivacious Gladys Cruz, of Spanish Seminole parentage.

In a few days they were wandering in the hall of the court house by a court attaché asking for a marriage license. It was a case of love at first sight, romance tingling in the blood of old Spain and in old Mexico.

The application for the license was made, the list of questions had been answered and the time for signatures came. When Mike said he could not write his bride said, "That's all right I'll teach him."

Mike made his mark and the last chapter of the romance was written by the court clerkman.

SOME FISHERMAN

Sandusky, O., Oct. 22 (UP).—It all started when a school boy, fishing in the Huron river, brought to surface a case of Canadian beer.

After the fishermen had rushed to the scene and dragged case after case from the depths, Sheriff Harry Cole, with deputies, went to the place and began fishing with nets. Six cases of beer rewarded their efforts.

According to authorities, the beer was dumped in the river last week by a rum runner, when he was pursued by a coast guard patrol boat.

"HOT-AIR CUSTODIAN."

Cleveland, O., Oct. 22 (UP).—"Custodian of Hot Air" is the placard posted on the door of the civil service commission here.

The notice goes on to relate, in smaller letters, that the position of custodian of buildings heated by hot air is open and examinations are to be held to determine who is to obtain the position.

"Candidates for the city council will be eligible for the position," announced Ellsworth Jeffery, secretary to the commission.

FOR STATE PARK.

Green Springs, O., Oct. 22 (UP).—A plan to make Green Springs a state park has been broached by H. C. Gammeter of Cleveland, who hopes to make the wooded spot a retreat for nature lovers and students.

He suggested that a horticulture station be established there to aid Ohio State university and Wooster. Villiage officers are back of the move Gammeter said.

AMUSEMENTS

In the picture Richard Dix has been about everything under the sun of late but an automobile racing driver, and it is as such that we find him in the Frank Tuttle-Paramount production, "The Lucky Devil," which opened at the Metropolitan theater yesterday.

The story was written especially for Dix by Byron Morgan, who wrote all the auto pictures in which Wally Reid starred. As Randy Farman, Dix has always wanted a car of his own, and his chance to get out into the open comes when as a demonstrator of auto camping outfits in a department store, he wins a trim little speedster—and then there's no holding him.

There's a series of big laugh scenes "on the road" when he meets Doris McDee (Esther Ralston) and her mother, played by Edna May Oliver. Something turns up that brings Mrs. McDee to believe that Randy isn't just the kind of a fellow she'd care to have her daughter associate with, so off they go from camp early the following morning without as much as a word to him. Dix is after them as soon as he opens his eyes, catches up to them and, after considerable explaining, convinces them that he's not a bad sort of chap after all.

A big "punch" scene in the picture—we say "a" because there are hundreds of them—is the $10,000 automobile road race, in which Dix drives his own car. And Dix drives it! You will want to stand right up on the seat and cheer as Dix comes tearing down the home stretch in the lead—and then something happens. It's a "smash" climax with a vengeance!

Here's a picture that's so full of fast moving action that it fairly burns up the screen. It's one you'll go out of the theater talking about, and then when you see other auto picture, you will always compare them to "The Lucky Devil." It's that kind of a picture!

The cast playing in support of Paramount's new star includes such well known names as "Gunboat" Smith, Anthony Jewett, Joe Burke, Mary Foy and Charles Sellon.

A System of Farming That Brings Health and Prosperity

Every farm, regardless of the method of farming practiced or of the crops raised, should have at least a few good milch cows to provide

- (1) Enough milk, cream and butter for home use;
- (2) Enough skim-milk to raise some calves, pigs and chickens;
- (3) Enough cream or butter to sell to pay, in part or entirely, current living expenses.

This plan has been a "life-saver" for thousands of farmers, especially during the hard times of the past two years. It insures a living, at least, and often other income besides.

Such a plan pays best with a De Laval Cream Separator. It soon pays for itself—and skims cleaner, lasts longer and is easier to operate and clean than any other.

HARTMAN THEATER.
"No, No, Nanette," happiest and most profitable of all musical comedies, will be the magnet that will attract thousands to the Hartman theater Columbus, during the week starting on Monday night, October 26. Since this wonder show first drew the eyes of the world upon it by establishing a run of 450 consecutive performances at the Harris theater, Chicago, last season, it has simply been the sensation of the show business. Its record in Chicago still stands above all other attractions.

During the Chicago engagement another company of exceptional caliber was organized and toured for seven weeks, playing Detroit, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and other cities to record business before beginning an engagement at the Garrick theater, Philadelphia. The piece remained in Philadelphia thru seven months, smashing all kinds of records there. It is the Philadelphia company that is coming to the Hartman, headed by such actual stars as Julia Sanderson, Donald Brian, Frank Crumit and Ona Munson.

There is a third company playing "Nanette" with Taylor Holmes and Nancy Wolford as its stars, that has broken all records in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Mr. Frazee also has three other companies appearing in the musical comedy in this country.

"No, No, Nanette" was produced in London eight months ago and is the biggest success the London stage has ever known. At present it is impossible to secure seats less than three months ahead, the advance sale being above $400,000.

Australia succumbed to the charms of "Nanette" five months ago, the piece being presented at the Princess theater, Melbourne. It has been packing that theater ever since.

New York did not get a chance to acclaim "Nanette" until a month ago. It is a question which of the various companies mentioned is really the best. All have splendid casts. The one coming to the Hartman is the biggest money winner, and it is the box-office that tells the story. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

Vest Pocket Battery May Run Car 10 Days

Leningrad.—A discovery that may have a revolutionary effect on industry is claimed by A. F. Joffe of the Academy of Science. In experimenting, Joffe says, he obtained a tremendous concentration of electrical energy in a very small object. The accumulator which he constructed and charged with energy, "sufficient to drive the most powerful motor car for ten days," is small enough to go into a waistcoat pocket, he says. The scientist hopes it may soon be possible to apply the discovery to general industry on a large scale.

Lesson for October 25

PAUL IN EPHEBUS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:1-41.
GOLDEN TEXT—"For the love of money is the root of all evil."—1 Tim. 6:10.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Tells Idol-Makers About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul's Preaching Stirs Up a Riot.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Diana or Christ.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Money or Christ.

Apollos, an Alexandrian Jew, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, had preceded Paul at Ephesus. He had diligently taught the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him they perceived his lack of instruction in Christian truth. Therefore, they took him and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly. Having thus come into fuller light, the brethren gave him a letter of endorsement as he passed to other fields.

I. John's Disciples Become Christians (vv. 1-7).

These 12 disciples had been taught only the baptism of repentance as a preparation for the kingdom of God. Paul taught them to believe on Christ, i. e., to receive Him as the One on the cross who had provided redemption for them. When they received Christ, Paul laid hands upon them and they received the Holy Spirit.

II. Paul Preaching in Ephesus (vv. 8-10).

1. In the Jewish Synagogue (v. 8).

Though the Jews were Paul's inveterate enemies, his rule was to go to them first with the gospel. His preaching was characterized:

(1) By boldness. He realized that God sent him, and that His authority was back of him.

(2) By reason. God's message is in accord with the highest reason.

(3) By persuasion. It is not enough to come boldly with a reasonable message, it must be accompanied by persuasion.

(4) By speaking, "concerning the kingdom of God." He did not discourse on current events, literature or philosophy, but upon the message of salvation through Christ.

2. In the Schoolhouse of Tyrannus (vv. 9-10).

The Jews, being enemies of the gospel of the grace of God, were only hardened by Paul's earnest preaching. Paul separated the disciples from them and resorted to the schoolhouse of Tyrannus. This was followed with glorious results.

III. God Working Miracles by Paul (vv. 11-16).

Ephesus was noted for its wonder workers. If Paul's ministry was to be successful here, God must in an extraordinary way put His seal upon His work. So wonderfully did He manifest His power that handkerchiefs and aprons brought from Paul's body healed the sick and cast out evil spirits.

IV. A Glorious Awakening (vv. 17-41).

1. Fear Falls Upon All (v. 17).
News of the casting out of these evil spirits created impressions favorable to Christianity.

2. It Brought to the Front Those Who Professed Faith in Christ, While Not Living Right Lives (v. 18).
They believed but had not broken from sin.

3. Gave Up the Practice of Black Arts (v. 19).
This means forms of jugglery by use of charms and magical words. They proved the genuineness of their actions by publicly burning their books.

4. Uproar of the Silversmith at Ephesus (vv. 23-41).
(1) The Occasion (vv. 23-24).
This was the power of the gospel in destroying the infamous business of Demetrius and his followers. It was clear to them that idolatry was tottering before the power of the gospel.

(2) The Method (vv. 25-29).
Demetrius, a leading business man, whose business was the stay of others of a similar nature, called a meeting and stated that much people had been turned from idolatry, and that the market for their wares was materially weakened. He appealed to his followers:

a. On the ground of business, saying: "This, our craft, is in danger of being set at naught," v. 27.

b. On the ground of religious prejudice. He said: "The temple of the great goddess Diana shall be despised" (v. 27). His speech gained him an end.

Christianity

Christianity is no mere scheme of doctrine or of ethical practice, but is instead a kind of miracle, a power out of nature and above, descending into it; a historically supernatural movement on the world, that is visibly entered into it, and organized to be an institution in the person of Jesus Christ.—Horace Bushnell.

Giving and Receiving
We live in a world of giving as well as of receiving.—American Friend.

TRIMMED!

It isn't that hat with the simple shape. Of common straw and the homely tape. It's ribbons and bows and some velvet blue.

Some tinsel and gold and a plume or two

That run the bill to a big amount—It's the trimmings that counts!

And so with man! Why it's not the dough

It costs to live that besets him so; It's jackpots and loans and the bets he's lost

The mining stock and the price it cost That sets him back such a big amount

It's the "trimmings" that count! —John D. Wells.

Unit of Illumination

Candle power is the illuminating power of a lamp or flame as reckoned in terms of the light of a standard candle. The standard candle of the lighting engineer is one so made as to burn at the rate of 120 grains, or 7.8 grams, per hour. It is commonly of spermaceti. The unit of illumination is the candle meter, which is the illumination given by such a candle at a distance of one meter (39.37 inches). Great Britain does not usually employ the candle meter, but uses instead the candle foot—the standard candle's illumination at a distance of 12 inches.

Heat with Distinction

At last it is proved that a home heater can be good looking—ornamental, if you will—as well as a practical heat-producing utility.

The Mueller Furnacette marks the greatest advance in home heating equipment since the invention of the heating stove. It is the joint creation of master furniture designers and skilled heating engineers. There is distinction in every line of its well-balanced, walnut-grained, vitreous enamel cabinet.

And as for heat—never was there an above-floor heater of any kind that could compare with the Furnacette in heating efficiency! It heats the whole house by continuously re-circulating warm, moist air thru all the rooms. It provides more comfortable, more uniform heat than two or three stoves combined, yet uses no more fuel than an ordinary heating stove.

Sold on convenient monthly payments.

POLICE AND FIRE-MEN ON COMPENSATION LIST

Columbus, Oct. 21.—State industrial commission will make compensation for injuries to firemen and policemen in cities where police and firemen's pension funds provide only for the care of retired firemen or policemen and for dependents of those killed in the service.

Heretofore, the commission has disallowed all claims in instances where cities had pension funds of any kind, since the law permitted such an exemption. The new decision makes the compensation laws more widely applicable to the service for which they were intended the commission believes.

James Creedon of Columbus, a detective on the police force is in the city.

Miss Sarah Cannon, of Columbus, is the guest of relatives over the weekend.

TIMBERLINE OF THE ROCKIES IS WONDER SPOT

Clem Yore, Rocky Mountain guide, tells of his experience in taking a famous banker to see the wonders of the timberline in the mountains of Colorado. The banker was first awed and then became humble.

"I've counted sixty species of wild flowers in a space of sixty feet square. I saw a bear eating berries. I saw eight storms in the distance, raging over a country larger than France. I saw timberline trees so twisted and bent that they made me think of old witches. I'm going down and get a horse and make my wife come up here. Since I've seen this place I'm not as tall as I was yesterday by twelve feet."

Yore, writing in the November McClure's Magazine, says the timber line is the most fascinating place in the world.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CABINET "BACKWARD PARTY" SOON.

The Epworth League cabinet of the First Methodist Episcopal church met in regular session Tuesday night and many details of the program of the league were worked out.

The following persons were elected to fill vacancies in the cabinet: Second Vice President, Miss Hazel Palm; fourth vice president, Miss Sarah Haswell; pianist, Miss Myrtle Reid. A social session was planned for Thursday evening, November fifth. This will be a "Backward Party." Further announcements later. The regular devotional services will be held each Sunday evening at six o'clock. Always a special program. Everyone invited.

14-Passenger Plane to Be Used in Channel Service

London.—A single 650-horse power airplane to seat 14 passengers recently completed its trials and will be used in the cross-channel service.

It has a large roomy cabin with wicker armchairs for the passengers who will have a constant supply of fresh air by means of special ventilation.

Emergency exits are provided in the room should it be necessary for passengers to emerge in case of landing on the sea, in which case the wheels, axle and undercarriage struts can be dropped by means of a lever in the pilot's cockpit.

The body of the machine is watertight and buoyant and would float for several hours.

Arizona wants 15,000 cotton pickers. Heretofore this labor has been obtained from Mexico, being returned after the harvest, but the new immigration laws prohibit this system.

"The Store That Treats You Right."

The Extravagance of Cheapness!

If one has money to waste on clothing, it may be all right to buy some of the so called "cheap" goods that are so freely advertised.

But comparatively few people can afford this form of extravagance. The man who is careful of his expenditures is not wasting money on poorly made ill-fitting clothes whose only attraction is a low first cost.

However, the shrewd and discerning buyers have contributed to our steady growth. The season's Values. Quality and dependability.
